

As LGBTQ+ Jews and allies, each of us is unique. This year, Keshet staff and board chose food and objects for an additional Seder plate to represent our communities (see the insert for a full description.)

Add your own food/object to the middle, share it with us using #MyKeshetSeder, and tell us what it means to you!

